100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va. ; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number ; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing ; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

I. T. STODDERT,
West Hatton, near Allen's Fresh Post-Office, Charles county, Maryland.

100 Dollars Reward.

RAN off from my plantation on the 25th inst. a bright Mulatto Slave, named,

FREDERICK,

(commonly known by his associates as Frederick Bankhead.) He is about 25 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 10 inches high. active and intelligent, stammers a little when spoken to, with a large scar on his upper lip, grey eyes and curly hair, which he generally keeps cut and combed in fashion.—He had on when he ran away, brown linen trowsers and shirt, a leather apron and a checked handkerchief, red and blue, tied around his waist, a pair of New England sale shoes, no other clothing with him. I will give for him to be secured in any jail out of the state of Virginia, of District of Columbia, so that I get him again, 100 dols. If taken in Washington or Georgetown 30; if in Alexandria town or county, 50 dolls. or if in any town or county in Virginia, 50 dollars, and all reasonable charges, if delivered to me, or to the jailor of Fairfax county, who is authorised by this advertisement, to receive him, for safe keeping.

Notice,

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turupike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fine wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. 100 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly ; had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia ; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands ; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands ; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 19, 1819.

The Military Expedition from the Lakes to the Mississippi, consisting of the 5th regiment of Infantry, under Col. Leavenworth, arrived at Prairie du Chien about the first of July, by the way of the Fox and Ouisconsin rivers, with only a portage of two or three miles. A detachment has also ascended the Mississippi from St. Louis, with provisions, clothing, ordnance, and munitions. Our correspondent states that Col. L. will have it in his power to establish the post at the Falls of St. Anthony this season, should it be deemed advisable to do so.

We also learn that the Missouri Expedition, under Col, Atkinson, was in advance of St. Charles on the 11th July, and notwithstanding the delay occasioned by some defects in the steam boats, there was no doubt the troops would arrive at the Council Bluffs, more than six hundred miles in advance of St. Louis, this season, well supplied with provisions, clothing, and munitions of war.

The characters of Colonels Atkinson and Leavenworth, warrant the belief that the arrangements of the government will be carried into full effect without collision with our citizens or the Indians.

[Nat. Intelligencer, August 17.

Captains Biddle, Carter, Read and Porter, and lieutenants Finch, Hamersley, Newell and Jones, of the United States navy, are at present at the seat of government. [Washington City Gazette.

WILSON CARY NICHOLSON, esq. has resigned the Presidency of the Office of Discount and Deposit of the Bank of the United States at Richmond. It is not understood, the Enquirer says, that any successor is appointed.

The Directors of the BANK OF WASHINGTON, Pennsylvania, have called a meeting of the stockholders, to take place on the 20th of September next, "to consider the propriety of closing the concerns of the institution as soon as circumstances will permit."

It is stated on the authority of letters from Raleigh, that the North-Carolina State Bank had resolved upon the entire suspension of specie payments. The bank and branches had been heavily beset with applicants for specie, and a person from Virginia has had a large amount of notes protested, with a determination to commence immediate suits. [Baltimore Patriot.

From the New-York Evening Post.

Mr. Jacob Barker has issued a pamphlet of fifty pages, addressed to the public, giving a minute and detailed statement of his banking operations, the situation in which he stands as to pecuniary matters, and likewise all his transactions with the United States, relative to loans, &c. In the course of the publication, Mr. Barker says, he shall offer himself next spring to the electors of the southern district, as a candidate for a seat in the senate of this state. He concludes his pamphlet, on the subject of his dispute with government, in the following words:

"How this controversy will result, time only can determine, if the government should ever so far listen to the voice of reason and justice, as to submit the whole affair to the decision of competent and disinterested men, as arbitrators between us; and if on such submission a balance should be found against me, it will, I hope and trust, be in my power to liquidate the same. I, however, am persuaded that such an investigation would result in a balance, due to me from the government, more than equal to the payment of all my debts, without the aid of my real or personal estate.—All I ask is justice.

JACOB BARKER."

SEA SERPENT AGAIN.

Captain Pearce, of ship Friendship, from Portsmouth, arrived at this port yesterday, reports, that on Sunday, at 9 A. M. near Squam Bar, he saw ahead and crossing the bow, the Sea Serpent. He had a distinct view of him, as did a passenger, Mr. Varney, and all the crew. His protuberances were particularly noticed. It was so calm at the time that they were obliged to sweep the vessel, and the weather so fine, that they had a distinct view of him three times and within one hundred yards. The source from which we obtain the information is of the most respectable kind. M. H. B.

REMARKABLE PRESENCE OF MIND DISPLAYED BY A CHILD OF 3 YEARS OF AGE.

A Mrs. Sargeant, living on the banks of Chateaugay lake, went to visit her father-in-law, on Sunday the 2d of May, leaving his child at home alone. During his mother's absence the child took a pipe and went to the fire to light it; in effecting this his frock, (a calico one) took fire, which, together with his shirt, were nearly burnt off from him, and his body burnt severely. He extinguished the flames by dipping a towel in a pail of water and flapping it about him, and after greasing himself with a candle all over the parts affected, went to bed. He is now well.

At a recent inquest on the body of a child burnt to death, the following was stated as an effectual mode of preventing such accidents:—After the clothes are washed, rinse them in a pan of clear water, in which alum has been dissolved; the quantity to be just what will give the water an acid taste; then dry and make up the clothes in the usual manner. This will make them look clear, and prevent them from taking fire, at least from fanning into a blaze: they will burn slowly like woollen. [Phila. paper.

LIGHTNING.

On Monday, 26th ult. about two o'clock, P. M. the house of Mr. John Hunt, in Shoreham, was struck by lightning, & the chimney and the upper part of the house considerably injured. The flash struck a young lady, who was in the upper part of the house, and ran down to her feet; and in its course, melted a string of gold beads which she had around her neck, burst her stocking and shoe, and set the lining of her shoe on fire. She was taken up perfectly senseless, in which situation she remained about ten hours, before she recovered.—A Mrs. Cook, who was on a visit at the house, and who was standing near the door, with an infant in her arms, and another small child by her side, was also knocked down, but was not materially injured—the children escaped unhurt.

Troy, (N. Y.) August 10.

On Saturday evening last, between 7 and 8 o'clock, and during one of the most tremendous storms, ever experienced there, Mr. Noadhiah Moody was instantly killed while walking in the street, in Stillwater, in the county of Saratoga. At the time Mr. Moody was killed, another man was walking with and by the side of him, who was knocked down, and remained senseless for some time: on recovering his senses he got up and discovered Mr. Moony lying dead on the ground. The side of this man which was next to Mr. Moody, was so completely filled with the electric fluid, that his leg and arm on that side was completely useless, and were deprived of all sensation. However, in a few minutes he recovered the use of his limbs, and, we believe, has received no material injury. We fear that this is not the only injury done in the course of that awful and terrific storm, as the whole horizon seemed to emit, from every point of the compass, an almost incessant glare of the most sharp and most vivid lightning that we recollect to have witnessed for many years, particularly from the south east.

Stockbridge, [Mass.] Aug. 12.

HAIL STORM.

On the 1st inst. a violent storm of hail was experienced in Sandersfield. We are told the vein was narrow, but over the part of the town which it passed, it destroyed all the garden vegetables, much grain, flax, oats, and dashed in pieces all the panes of glass within its reach. The hail upon an average was as large as musket balls.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

On Saturday the 31st ult. as Clark Pease of Sandisfield, a lad about 14 years of age, was loading hay, his father who was pitching, threw upon the cart a large quantity at once, the fork adhering to it, was so left, until Mr. Pease could drive his cart across a small stream to complete the load—but unfortnately, in doing this, one of the wheels sunk so suddenly, while the other was raised, that the lad was precipitated from the load directly upon the fork—the tines of which entered his body, just forward, and a little below the arm;—he spoke but once—and died. We are told he was an excellent youth, and of great promise.

ANOTHER.

A few days since, a Mr. Curtis of Tyringham, was riding a young horse, when he suddenly reared and fell over backward upon Mr. Curtis, which so much injured him, that, after languishing in the most extreme agony for three days, he died.

SUICIDE.

We are informed by a gentleman, who passed through Canton, Conn. last week, that a man by the name of Freeman Graham, put a period to his existence, by stabbing himself, in three places in the abdomen. [Berkshire Star.

Saratoga, (N. Y.) Aug 11.

A person by the name of Benjamin Bennet, was committed to jail at Ballston, on the 3d inst. charged with an assault and battery, and attempt to commit a murder on the body of Seth Haskins, of Corinth, in this county. During the absence of Bennet on the Saturday evening preceding, Haskins called on Mrs. Bennet for food, which was given him. On retiring, he was met by Bennet a short distance from the house, who interrogated him as to the cause of his visit. Though answered in a correct manner, Bennet, in a violent passion, commenced whipping him with a loaded whip. Haskins made a partial defence, and finally succeeded in so far extricating himself as to attempt an escape. Bennet pursued him, and by taking a circuitous route, intercepted his passage.—Blows and the cry of murder were soon heard by persons who hastened to the spot. Haskins was found senseless, his skull fractured in several places, and otherwise dreadfully mangled. Bennet was immediately arrested, and committed to await his trial at the next term of the supreme court. While acting this tragic scene of savage barbarity, he is said to have been partially intoxicated, and to have fractured the scull of his victim with a sharp stone.

Since writing the above, we learn that Haskins continued to linger, in a senseless condition, until yesterday morning, when he expired. — — [Sentinel.

Raleigh, N. C. August 13.

The day before yesterday, a small boy, of the name of Powers, peeping into one of the public wells of this city, which he had partly uncovered, unfortunately fell in, head foremost, and plunged into the water, whose surface was nearly 40 feet from the top of the well. A young man, named Matthew Shaw, arrived here within a few weeks from Scotland, chanced to see the accident, and, instantly snatching a rope from a neighboring store, threw one end into the well, lashed the other to the pump, slid down it, fished up the stunned and half drowned boy from the bottom, fastened him securely to the rope, and called to the company, who had by this time assembled round the well, to draw him up; and, in less than two minutes from the time of his descent, the boy was safely landed on terra firma, a good deal injured by the fall, but likely to recover. Shaw remained in the well until the rope was sent down a second time, when he ran up with the agility of a sailor, apparently thinking very little of an adventure that called forth the admiring and grateful plaudits of the collected citizens. SUDDEN DEATH.

Died lately on the plantation of Mr. B——s, in South Carolina, a Negro Wench, (a field hand,) while in the act of hoeing a hill of corn, aged 45. Her friends who attended to lay her out, found lashed round her the handle of a frying pan, which she had substituted in lieu of a corset, well secured by pieces of rope, which was, no doubt, the cause of her untimely exit.

DEATH OF OLD HOPE.

This extremely old man, and well known character in this city, (having been selling fruit therein for upwards of half a century, an occupation which he continued to a very recent period,) breathed his last breath at Hope estate, Liguana, on Monday last. He was registered under the late act of assembly, from the best date that could be procured on the above property, to which he belonged, by the name of Roger, at the uncommonly advanced age of one hundred and forty years. He has done no work for the property, for the last eighty years, having also been allowed a young negro man to assist in maintaining him. He retained his strength in such a degree as enabled him to walk from the estate to this city, a distance of seven miles, even within the last few months.—In November or December last, we saw him returning from town to Hope estate. He was a stout lad at the great earthquake in 1692 · was on Merriman's Hill Mountain, in St. Andrew, when it took place, whence he saw the terrible convulsion which destroyed Port Royal, of which he always gave, when required, a very distinct and consistent account. He was a native of this Island, and was never off it.

From the Salem Gazette. Aug. 10.

LONGEVITY.

There is now living in the town of Middleton, in this state, an old lady by the name of Ruth Elliot, at the very advanced age of one hundred and two. She has two sons living:—Stephen, aged 78, who has one child and 5 grand children, is in good health, and works every day at the coopering and various other business; his eyesight is yet perfect. Asa, the other brother, will be 74 in September next; has 4 children and 5 grand children. One son (Andrew) deceased at about the age of 50, from whom are 5 children, 22 grand children, and 3 great grand children.—Mrs. Elliot has been a widow a number of years; she has a sister, Betsey Nichols, aged 90, who has 10 children, 20 grand children, 5 great grand children, and 4 of the fourth generation. She has also a brother, John Hutchinson, aged 83, who has 3 children, 12 grand children, and one great grand child. Mrs. Elliot followed the market to Boston and Salem from youth until she was 85 years old; was famous for selling mint water and cloth; was run over by a truck in Salem, the wheel passing over her breast and head after the age of 80; she recovered in about two hours, so as to mount her horse and ride home, a distance of ten miles. She has always been remarkable for her industry, and has worked until within three years; she was very handsome even at the age of 40. In the Revolutionary war, she would weave 20 yards of cloth a day for soldiers. After the age of 90 she could mount her horse and ride about the country, and walk off briskly, a mile and an half at a time. She never drank any spirit until within a few years, and now but very sparingly. After the age of 90 she settled an estate at the Probate Court, correctly.

RESULT OF A LIFE OF PIETY AND GOOD OFFICES.

An aged citizen, whilst recently on his bed of death, surrounded by his wife and children, (distressed with the idea of separation, and at the moment when the lamp of life was about to be extinguished,) raised his voice with calmness, and said, "Be comforted, and comfort one another—I am at rest with my Redeemer," and expired.

New-York Gazette.

Accounts from Hayti state, that the President Boyer had caused his senate to pass an act enabling foreign merchants to recover, by legal process, debts contracted by the natives. Heretofore strangers were compelled to receive produce in payment of their demands, at an exorbitant price, or wait the pleasure of their debtors. This wise regulation, it is justly expected will greatly augment the trade of Hayti.

N. York Daily Advertiser.

A sum of money amounting to 1306*l.* 15s. hes been raised at Grenada, by private subscription, for building a new Methodist Chapel in the town of St. George: and we find by a notice from Messrs. Shrewsbury and Goy, (the Missionaries,) that the work will be immediately commenced.

The legislature of St. Kitt's have voted the sum of 250*l* to the Moravian missionaries in that Island, to assist them in erecting a place of worship in the parish of St. Mary's. ——— [Ibid.

'It's hard for a Printer to please every body.'

The above is a trite but true remark, when we consider the diversity of taste in reading; and indeed, no observation could be more correct, Many censure the printer for copying articles of news from other papers of the same city or place.—'Pshaw,' say they, 'I've read this before—away with your John Thompson's news, and give us some original matter.' 'I will,' says the good natured printer—and in a short time, in pops another, who takes no other paper, and says 'I wish you would give us some news, and leave your long NEW pieces away.' The printer obliging and obsequious as a candidate for the Sheriffalty, says, 'we'll split the difference, and give a little of every thing." Up he bounces, and runs to the post office to bring an armful of papers, sent him in exchange, by his brothers of the type. Now for news—he turns—and turns again—nothing worth extracting; here a man runs away with anothers wife; hands put that in; here a villain kills his neighbor; lash it down: here two fools fight a duel; mark that: bless me, a pumpkin as large as a hogshead; that's for Farmers: a man advertising for a wife; that's for old maids. In short, the whole supply of news, with very trivial exceptions, is hardly sufficient for the prattling tongues of gossips over a dish of tea; but something must be put in the paper; so go on.

"Stale news, by George!" cries one; "insipid, miserable stuff!" reiterated another.—What now, Mr. Printer? to make war between nations & elements; announces comets, earthquakes, tornadoes, visions, and the discovery of inhabitable lands in the centre of the earth, by Symmes; to say the Sea Serpent travelled by land from Boston harbor to Pittsburgh; to assert that Bonaparte had escaped from St. Helena, and beheaded Louis XVIII.—all won't do. Zounds! what liars the printers are, every body exclaims, and the poor printer would stand at his press, scratching his head like a boy when he broke his master's beer mug. Nothing is now left but to throw ourselves on the generosity of our readers, to promise endeavors, and beg them to reflect that "where there are many men, there are many minds."——Anon. [*Pet. DANGEROUS THREAT.

A gay spark, who had taken up lodgings at a public house in London, and got considerably in debt, absented himself and took new quarters. This so enraged the landlord that he commissioned his wife to go and dun him; which the debtor hearing of, he declared publicly that if she came he would kiss her. "Will he, (quoth the lady) will he? Give me my bonnet, Molly, I'll see whether any fellow on earth has such impudence." "My dear," said the cooling husband, "pray don't be so rash; you don't know what a man may do in a passion."

Montreal, July 30.

We have recently recommended the situation of the emigrants who are daily arriving in this port, to the consideration of our fellow citizens. The mistaken allurements, by which they were invited to this country, should excite our commiseration; their poverty is entitled to our benevolence, and their various infirmities to our generous sympathy. On their arrival in this climate, the majority are afflicted with diseases which disqualify them for every exertion necessary for an independent subsistence; and disappointment blasts their ambition.

HEALTH OF THE CITY.

We are happy in having it in our power to present to the public the following Official Report of the Health Commissioners—it will tend to put to rest a number of unfounded rumors which not only prevail in the city, but have been industriously circulated by letters, in every direction.

[American.

HEALTH OFFICE,

Baltimore, August 17, 1819.

After the report made by the Physicians on the 31st of July last, measures were taken to obtain from them separately, and from the citizens inhabiting places suspected of disease, daily communications concerning the health of the city. If from the best information and advice thus obtained any material change from the tenor of their public report, had been discovered, it would have become the indispensable duty, as it has been the fixed determination of the Board of Health, to have promptly and frankly made it known, but no such change, it is believed, has hitherto occurred.

It may be proper to add, that some medical opinions not known to the meeting, did not concur in that report—but it is believed that even in their estimation the proportion of malignant cases is not increased, and we are induced to hope their opinions, by reposing much on principles of theory, may not have been founded on a practical view of the facts—for it seems to be admitted on all sides, that such cases as have appeared do almost invariably present themselves whether the season prove healthy or not—with regard to these opinions however, every information is now and will be given to the public that may be found connected either with their safety or satisfaction. It will however, be readily perceived that this discordance of medical opinion creates difficulties in acquiring or communicating information among those not scientifically versed in such subjects.

It is at the same time pleasing to observe that all agree that in no instance has the fever proved contagious, and that whatever may have been its character or qualities, the cases produced in the city were evidently confined in their origin to one dock, and seems to have entirely disappeared therefrom, although still frequented by the one half of its inhabitants. In the mean time several cases of the same description have appeared at Fell's Point, and in like manner thus far are very confined in their range. In any event the utmost attention will be paid to observe their course and obviate their causes and extension—as, on this subject, long and dear bought experience has placed much within the control of police regulations, which have already proved advantageous, and will continue to be enforced with unremitting assiduity and determined rigor.

The enlarged bounds of the city have induced many of our citizens to believe our weekly bills of mortality to be greatly increased which will be found, on examination, not to be the fact as to numbers, nor essentially different in malignant cases, when compared with the last ten or twelve years. The extreme heat and long continued drought have caused many sudden deaths, especially among the intemperate and careless; deaths by accidents, also, have been over proportioned, and both tend to originate false reports and keep alive unusual anxieties. It is impossible that there can be any motives for concealment or disguise of the actual health of the city, if the inexcusable disposition existed to make them; and it is repeated, whatever that may be, it shall be faithfully and truly exhibited, whenever any sensible changes are observed.

The Board acknowledge with great satisfaction the attention of the Physicians of Baltimore in their prompt communications respecting the health of our city.

By order—

P. REIGART. Sec'ry.

Married,

On Monday evening last, by the Rev. W Wells, the Rev. CHRISTOPHER FRYE, of Winchester, to MRS. MARGARET MOSS, of this place.

Obituary.

It is with no common degree of sensibility that we commit to the pages of our obituary, the name of that eminent servant of his Redeemer, the Rev. Dr. JAMES INGLIS, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, in the city of Baltimore. Dr. Inglis had been sometime in a state of delicate health, and contemplated a retreat into the country. At ten o'clock on Sunday morning last, he was seized with an apoplectic—medical assistance was immediately called in, but he was found to be beyond the reach of medicine; and between the hours of eleven and twelve he resigned his spirit into the hands of his Redeemer. We are aware how common and stale newspaper panegyrics have become, and we have on that account but seldom resigned our columns to eulogies on the dead. The character of the deceased was marked by a certain independence, decision and dignity, which was manifested to the most transcient observers. The spectator was made to feel that he was in the presence of no ordinary man; he felt a sense of personal inferiority, that no kindness or approaches to familiar intercourse on the part of the Doctor could entirely remove, and yet no man at such moments appeared less sensible of the weight of his own character and talents, than Dr. Inglis; it was not an assumed—it was a natural, inherent, native dignity—On his part he appeared in private discourse to levy no tax of admiration; but to meet on even ground. There was in his mind nothing selfish or contracted; it was formed on a scale, large, liberal and magnificent. While he defended his own particular system, with an energy and an eloquence almost unrivalled, he manifested a large and comprehensive charity for other denominations: his death has made a chasm that will not soon be filled up. As an orator, he stood in the front rank of his profession, and it seems an unusual coincidence, that he should have departed on the very day, when he so often proclaimed from the pulpit the words of eternal life, to his admiring and delighted audience—that those who on this day were assembling to receive from his lips the treasures of the gospel, should behold them touched by the icy hand of death—that they should follow their beloved pastor, not to the temple of God, but to the house appointed for all the living. Seldom indeed has a character presented so many points of admiration; in private life he was beloved with an enthusiastic affection, but it was in the temple of God, that he appeared in his proper, and appropriate grandeur; impressed with the awfulness of his functions, he rose to the majesty of his subject, and he enforced the great principles of christian duty, with a dignity that seemed to compel conviction, illuminated by a blaze of fancy, always at command.

Fairfax County,

June 21st, 1819.

AT a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of Fairfax county, convened for the purpose of forming an Auxiliary Colonization Society, William H. Fitzhugh, esq. was called to the chair, and Charles G. Broadwater appointed secretary—when, after the adoption of a constitution and necessary rules for their government, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:—

Wm. H. Fitzhugh, esq. president; Robert T. Thompson, Alexander Waugh, Wm. E. Beckwith, Daniel F. Dulany and John Reid, vice presidents; George W. Hunter, James Sangster, Richard C. Mason, John W. Ashton and Wm. Moss, managers; John Moore, treasurer; and C. G. Broadwater, secretary.

On motion, it was resolved, That the board of managers be requested to take as early and as efficient measures as possible for the attainment of the objects of the society.

Resolved, that the thanks of this Society be presented to the chairman for the able manner in which he has presided at this meeting.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary out-house, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.

TERMS OF THE WORK.

A volume of the Repertory shall consist of twelve numbers, of which one shall be published on the first day of every month, containing thirty-two large octavo pages, stitched in blue, and attended with a table of contents.

The paper used in the work shall be good, and the typography executed with the greatest care.

The price of a volume is two dollars, payable in advance; to such as omit the advance, two dollars and fifty cents.

It is designed to enlarge the size of the work, without increasing the price, as soon as one thousand subscribers shall be obtained.

Communications and remittances may be directed to any of the editors, post paid.

Any person becoming responsible for five subscribers, shall receive a sixth copy gratis.

The first number may be expected in the month of July. June 26

For Sale,

TWO tracts of valuable land in Durham Parish, Charles County, Maryland opposite Nanjemoy Reach—one of these tracts of land is bounded on one side by the Potomac, has a valuable fishery, and contains about 360 acres of bottom, with a quantity of wood that ought to be cut.—The other is about three-fourths of a mile from the river, from one half to two thirds covered with wood and valuable white-oak timber, and contains about 700 acres. Both tracts have an orchard of choice fruit. The above land will be sold at Charles County Court, on THURSDAY in the third week of August next at Public sale, if not sold before, at private sale.—The terms will be made known at the sale. Timber or wood may be purchased any time previous to the sale.
